

Dear Friends and Family,

October 31, 2011

We cannot tell you how excited we are about the calling we feel that God has laid on our hearts. We have an amazing opportunity to go and serve God in Mexico on a mission trip in March 2012. We are going to Juarez, Mexico through Screamin' Eagle Outfitters with a mission group called Casas Por Cristo. This group builds a home for a family that has no home to live in or even a shelter to call home. We will not only build a home in 4 days from the ground up, but we will also be sharing the Gospel with the children and families in the community and on the streets.

We are writing this letter because we need your support in order to make this mission trip possible. There are a couple of ways that you can partner with us to be a part of this mission trip. First, we need prayer as we begin this journey for safety, for the hearts of the people of Mexico to be open to hearing the word of God and for financial support. We need our family and friends to be in deep prayer for our team. Secondly, we need help financially to make this trip possible. If you feel led to partner with us in this way, the money will help pay for the building supplies to construct the home for the family, food for the week and travel expenses. The Lord has called his people to go and serve Him through working with our hands and through sharing the Gospel with others. We cannot do this without the financial support of God's people. It is our prayer that God leads you in the direction that He desires in order for you to partner with us in this mission trip to Mexico. If you feel led to give financial support, please mail your donation to us at the address below. You can make checks payable to us personally or to "Screamin' Eagle Outfitters" and put our names in the memo line. If you would like to check out Screamin' Eagle Outfitters or Casas Por Cristo's websites, they are www.screamineagleoutfitters.com and www.casasporcristo.org.

Thank you for praying about this opportunity. May the Lord Bless you always!

Because of Him,

Kenna and Chad McDaniel
